U.S. Patent and Trademark Office PTOL-303 (Rev. 11-03) Continuation of 5. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: the arguments are directed to claims that are amended afterfinal. Applicant's arguments that claim 13, not rejected in the previous Office Action, is now incorporated into claim 12 is also considered, but is not persusive. Claim 13 was inadvertently omitted in the last office action in the rejection heading, but Examiner clearly made of record that no claims were allowed in paragraph 5 and in the Office Action Summary, Page 1, box 6. Therefore, Applicant was in proper notice that claim 13 was included in the rejections or record.

Nevertheless, incorporation of claim 13 into the pending generic claim appears to advance the prosecution if recited in the form of an additional positive method step. As originally presented claim 13 required an additional and positive step of simulating collagen regeneration beyond mere inherent function of the compositions employed. However, the presented afterfinal claim 12, recites the "stimulation of collagen regeneration" as an inherent function of the composition employed in claim 12. Therefore, Applicant has not properly incorporated all the limitations of claim 13 into claim 12, because the original claim 13 required an additional step of further comprising the step of stimulating collagen regeneration in said bone." The proposed claim 12 does not require such limitation. Therefore, amendment afterfinal would require further consideration.
